

The Golden Aurora 2023 for Europe's Female Angel Investor of the Year 2023! Nominate now!

Business Angels Deutschland e.V. (BAND) and Business Angels Europe (BAE) will award the annual prize Golden Aurora for Europe's Female Angel Investor of the Year 2023. The winner of the Golden Aurora is expected to serve as an ambassador for Female Angel Investing in Europe. A clear objective is to motivate more women to become Angel Investors. BAND has declared the "Women Angels Mission '25" to achieve the goal of a total of 25% female Business Angels in Germany by 2025 (more info: www.womenangelsmission25.de)

Who is eligible to be nominated?

Any active Female Angel Investor with a permanent residence in Europe

Who can nominate?

The Female Angel Investor is to be nominated by anyone, e.g. one of her portfolio start-ups or a colleague. The nomination should answer the following questions: How does she support start-ups, both in terms of financing and entrepreneurial backing? What is special about working with her?

How do I nominate my Female Angel Investor?

The nominations can be submitted until May, 1st, 2023 here:
<https://www.business-angels.de/golden-aurora-2023-call-for-proposal/>

A jury of experienced Angel Investors and distinguished players of the Business Angel ecosystem all over Europe will decide on the winner. The ceremony will be held on July, 5th, 2023 in Berlin.

Why Golden Aurora?

In Roman mythology, Aurora opens the gates of the sky to allow the sun to rise. Female Angel Investors also open gates for their start-ups that may result in golden opportunities. Also, the award is able to shed light on the contributions of Female Angel Investors like Aurora sheds light every dawn.
